Books

Meet a fun new group parade of animals that all want to have fun but not be too loud.

In this delightful companion, the same adorable toddler from Isadora's "Peekaboo Morning" takes children through the evening, playing peekaboo with everyone from his grandparents to his puppy, until it's time for bed.

In beautifully rendered illustrations, this delightfully sweet picture book depicts animals saying good night to their young.

Mama has errands to run, so it is up to Papa and big brother to stop baby sister from crying. And, as families familiar with this popular American lullaby know, they will try just about anything to convince baby to smile again. Award-winning artist Brian Pinkney's version of the classic song is an exuberant and affectionate tribute to a father's unconditional love.

At the end of the day, darkness is falling and little ones are getting sleepy, feeling cozy, and being tucked into bed.
