

Alamance County Public Libraries Featured Resources

NoveList Plus

Looking for the perfect book?
The library has an online resource perfect for you!

Try NoveList Plus and never worry about how to find your next great read again. With more than 220,000 fiction titles and over 60,000 nonfiction titles, NoveList Plus has something for everyone.

NoveList Plus has many easy to use features:

- Multiple ways to search
Search by Author, Title or Series. Or simply describe a plot. Searches can be limited by Reading Level, Grade Level and Lexile Level. Choose either Fiction or Nonfiction. Search for authors of a particular gender or nationality.
- Author Read-alikes
Descriptions of the writing style of your favorite author, and suggestions for authors who “read like” them.
- Recommended Reads
Suggested reading lists that cover a wide variety of subjects in all genres.
- Book Discussion Guides
Great for your book clubs. Includes information on the author, summary, discussion points and more.
- BookTalks
Designed especially for Teens and Kids – these book descriptions will grab their attention without giving away the ending.
- Feature Articles
Brief discussions about titles in a particular genre or that feature a particular theme.
- What We’re Reading
Find out what some of the nationally-known experts are reading.

So what’s this narrative nonfiction I’m hearing about?

Ready to try something different? Try narrative nonfiction – nonfiction that reads like a story. This type of nonfiction is also often referred to as creative or readable nonfiction. Check with your librarian to learn more about NoveList Plus and the great narrative nonfiction your library has to offer.

Access to NoveList Plus is through NC LIVE. Follow one of the links on the Alamance County Public Libraries website (www.alamancelibraries.org) or go to www.nclive.org. From the NC LIVE homepage, click on “Literature & Criticism” from the “Browse by Category” listing